Gwyneth Walsh

Gwyn was born in England and at 37 years old left for the mission field in Central Europe to serve at 'Calvary Chapel Bible College Europe'. In 2009 the Lord called Gwyneth and her family to New Zealand to plant 'Calvary Chapel Bible Institute' with a heart to raise up young men and women and send them out to serve their Lord. Gwyneth's heart is to see women grounded and built up in the Word of God, disciplined to lead others to Christ and to be about His business as we see the day approaching.

Gwyneth lives in England with her husband Mark. Their two adult children remain in New Zealand, serving in ministry roles.
